

Cincinnati Asian Art Society

2021-2022 Programs

Saito Kiyoshi: Graphic Awakening

Sunday September 19, 2021

Free Online Public Program

2:00 PM on Zoom

Zoom link will be sent to members and friends

Dr. Rhiannon Paget, Curator of Asian Art at the John and Mabel Ringling Museum of art, will illustrate why the Japanese printmaker, Saito Kiyoshi, was one of the most popular Japanese artists in the United States.

This program will be recorded but only available to CAAS members because of copyrights.

The Parsi Gara: Cultural Symbols and More

Saturday October 30, 2021

Free Online Public Program

11:00 AM on Zoom

Textile designer, author and curator Ashdeen Lilaowala will share exciting insights and stories on the splendors of hand-embroidered saris with examples from his eponymous label. We'll even see workshops where the incredible fabrics are created.

The Journey of a Korean Screen

Sunday November 14, 2021

Free – In-Person Program!

2:00 PM Taft Art Museum, 3:00 PM Reception

Peter Doebler, Kettering Curator of Asian Art at the Dayton Art Institute, coordinated a project that restored a gorgeous Korean folding screen. We'll learn about the history of the screen, the techniques that artists used and the project.

Re-envisioning the Art of the Ancient Middle East

Sunday January 30, 2022

Free – In-Person Program!

2:00 PM Cincinnati Art Museum, 3:00 PM Reception

The galleries of the ancient Middle East, closed to the public for several years, will soon re-open after a major reinstallation project that includes physical changes to the gallery space as well as a significant re-interpretation of the ancient world. Join Ainsley M. Cameron, Curator of South Asian Art, Islamic Art and Antiquities, for a talk that explores this curatorial process as well as a 'sneak peek' of the Islamic World and South Asian galleries opening in Spring 2022.

Rediscovered East Asian Treasures at the CAM

Sunday February 27, 2022

Free – In-Person Program!

2:00 PM Cincinnati Art Museum, 3:00 PM Reception

Hou-mei Sung, Curator of East Asian Art, has discovered two amazing artworks in storage. With help from Kelly Rectenwald, Objects Conservator, we'll be the first to see them.

Asian Textiles: Treasures of Color and Pattern

Sunday March 27, 2022

Free – In-Person Program!

2:00 PM Cincinnati Art Museum, 3:00 PM Reception

Cynthia Amneus, Chief Curator and Curator of Fashion Arts and Textiles, will share highlights of the Cincinnati Art Museum's Asian textile collection, including China, Korea and Southeast Asia.

Sixth Annual Asian Art Lecture

Dance and the Arts of India

Sunday April 24, 2022

Free – In-Person Program!

2:00 PM Cincinnati Art Museum, 3:00 PM Reception

Explore the art of dance and the connections between the visual arts and the performing arts in India. Our speaker, Mekala Krishnan, Bharatanatyam dancer, will demonstrate classical dance movements as she shares with us this exciting intersection of visual and performing arts.

The Art of Vietnamese Cooking

Sunday May 2020

Members Only

Chef Duy Nguyen, co-owner of popular Pho Lang Thang at Findlay Market, will demonstrate Vietnamese home cooking for us at the home of a CAAS member. We'll enjoy a family style lunch that will include a special dessert from his mother. The cost will be $20 per person, reservations required.